

The magic of Christmas in Paris, the appeal of the Castille.

The ville lumière and a boutique hotel. Sophisticated designer chic.

A fairy-tale that, from 8th to 26th December, can now come true thanks to this special package.

For only 590 euros for two nights in a deluxe room, breakfast included, you can be right in the heart of Paris. And that is not all.

So you can take home a tangible souvenir of this unique experience, the package includes:

a small, decorated Christmas tree

a box of delicious French chocolates

a Shopping Privilege Card for the famous “Galerie Lafayette” and “Printemps”.

The Castille is in the heart of Paris, between Place de la Concorde and Place Vendome, close to Chanel’s universal temple of elegance in Rue Cambon.

Elegance that abounds in each of the 108 rooms situated in Opéra or Rivoli, as the hotel’s two different areas are called. Opéra is sumptuous, with iridescent materials, painted furniture and walls in pastel green, salmon and Pompeii red.

The decor in Rivoli is rarefied and classical. Straw Vienna chairs, pearl grey bathrooms, and black and white photographs by Robert Doisneau evoke the atmosphere of Paris in the Thirties.

And, everywhere, the timeless charm of an Eighteenth Century property.

All the rooms have a soft-feathered “Starbed”, a Bang e Olufsen TV, fax and modem facilities, Starbeauty and Pillowmania, our “à la carte” pillow service.
